Whitehall, June 7.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltaſh in Cornwall, has been preſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Glenorchy, and Thomas Corbett, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Grantham her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain: Which Addreſs her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and to order, that it ſhould be tranſmitted to the King at Hanover.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltaſh in Cornwall, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with a Princeſs of the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha.

Your Majeſty's paternal Care of your People has been conſpicuous in every Part of your mild and gracious Government, but in this joyful Inſtance you have extended the Proſpect of our Felicity down to our Poſterity, and have laid the Foundations of the ſame Bleſſings to our Children, which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Protection in our civil and religious Liberties.

That your Majeſty may long continue over us, and that their Royal Highneſſes (imitating the great Example of Virtue in their auguſt Parents) may be equally happy in each other, and in a numerous Progeny, are the moſt ardent Wiſhes and Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

Warſaw, May 30. We have Advice that M. Stadnicki, who was ſome time ſince appointed Miniſter from King Auguſtus to the Ottoman Court, but was refuſed to be admitted in that Character, and ſent to Adrianople, has been deſired by that Court to return to Conſtantinople; which Incident is looked upon as a Mark of the Turks beginning to ſoften in Favour of King Auguſtus. The Prince of Lubomirski, Palatin of Cracovia, is arrived here from Vienna. The Ruſſian Miniſter did ſome Days ſince give a Memorial to the Poliſh Miniſtry, deſiring them to iſſue the neceſſary Orders for the Subſiſtance of the Ruſſian Troops that are returning from Germany to join the Army under the Command of Felt Marſhal Count Munich. Letters from Dantzick give an Account, that the Saxons delivered up the Fort of Wexelmund to that Town the 22d Inſtant.

Hambourg, June 6, N. S. His Daniſh Majeſty has not ſince his Arrival at Altena ſtirred out of his Bedchamber; his Complaint at firſt was of a Cold, a Pain in his Head, and a Reſtleſſneſs occaſioned by internal Heat, which kept him from ſleeping; theſe Symptoms alarmed every Body with the Fear of his having the Small Pox, which are very riſe in the Towns he paſſed through; but that Apprehenſion is entirely over, ſince the Diſtemper appears to be a common Ague and Fever. His Daniſh Majeſty begins to reſt better a Nights, and the Returns of his Ague, which are every other Day, are ſhorter and more gentle, and come each Time ſomewhat later than the former; ſo that there is great Reaſon to hope this Indiſpoſition will neither prove dangerous, nor of a long Continuance.

Hague, June 12, N. S. It having been finally reſolved to make a Reduction of the Troops of this State, and that the Pay of the Number deſigned to be diſmiſs'd ſhall ceaſe on the 8th of July; the Reform is already begun here with the Regiment of Horſe Guards and
